RE Knowledge Organiser – Year 6 Summer term 1b Concept: Interpretation Key knowledge Communicate. What does Interpretation mean to me There are three different versions of the nativity story in the gospels now? How do I interpret things? of Matthew, Mark and Luke. Key differences include who visited the baby Jesus and what Mary and Joseph did after the birth. Even though Christians have the same key beliefs, the majority will DS Apply. all interpret the bible slightly differently. Evaluate. How is interpretation A sermon is a talk delivered by a member of the clergy about their What is the value of the significant to me and concept of Interpretation to own interpretation of a passage. others? How does it affect helievers? my life? What are the advantages and disadvantages of Contextualise. Enquire Main religion: Christianity different interpretations? How do Jewish, Christian and gon What does interpretation mean? religious people express their ideas Does everyone always see things about interpretation? the same way? Key vocabulary A talk on a religious or moral The record of Christ's life and annunciation The announcement of the gospel sermon teaching in the first four books subject, especially one given Incarnation by the angel Gabriel to of the New Testament during a church service Marv A group of people assembled nativity The birth of Jesus Christ A person's opinion congregration viewpoint for religious worship. People ordained for religious To examine (something) in The people giving attention to clergy analyse audience duties, especially in the detail, typically in order to something explain and interpret it Christian Church DS DS